

2014 Student Application

American Wilderness Leadership School-(AWLS)-Jackson, WY

June 30, - July 6, 2014

SCI Foundation/AWLS is a permittee of the Bridger-Teton National Forest and is an equal opportunity service provider.

The Program

For the past 37 years, SCIF's American Wilderness Leadership School has held student sessions as part of summer programs in Jackson, Wyoming. The outdoor instructional programs focus on conservation and natural resource management providing students a base of knowledge to better understand and to evaluate today's and future conservation issues.

- The American Wilderness Leadership School's seven day student program presents a base knowledge of wildlife ecology and conservation learning that becomes a central point around which leadership training is provided.
- This program offers recreational activities that include an overnight camping trip in the mountains, a whitewater raft trip on the Snake River, and more.
- The cost of sponsoring individuals is $900 with the sponsor sometimes arranging and assisting with round trip airfare or ground transportation expenses. Transportation from the Jackson Airport to the school is provided.

Facilities

The Wyoming site is an American Camp Association accredited Conference Center surrounded by the marvelous beauty of the Gros Ventre Wilderness area within Bridger-Teton National Forest. Granite Creek flows near the Joel Loveridge-Jim Conklin Education Complex which provides a professional quality kitchen, dining room, instruction and dormitory facilities in addition to staff cabins and support buildings. Linens, pillows, and towels are provided.

Qualifications

To be considered for the American Wilderness Leadership School Program, a candidate must:

- Must be 16-18 years of age.
- Have demonstrated an interest in conservation, wildlife management and hunting.
- Experience as a leader in youth organization.
- Have demonstrated an ability to work and communicate effectively with others. Work in a team environment.
- Submit a minimum of three letters of recommendation.
- Submit a 500 word statement as described in this application.
